C A P. XXI.

An Act to empower the Commissioners appointed for distributing the Money paid by the United States of America, to withdraw the same from the Bank, and invest it in Exchequer Bills. [21st March 1808.]

43 G. 3. c. 39.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for appointing Commissioners for distributing the Money stipulated to be paid by the United States of America, under the Convention made between His Majesty and the said United States, among the Persons having Claims to Compensation out of such Money, certain Commissioners were appointed for apportioning, dividing, and distributing the Sum of Six hundred thousand Pounds, which the United States of America engaged to pay by Instalments for the Use of the Persons described in the Sixth Article of the Treaty of Commerce, Amity, and Navigation, concluded at London on the Fourth Day of November One thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, between His Majesty and the said United States, in Satisfaction of the Money which the United States might have been liable to pay in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Sixth Article; which said Sum of Six hundred thousand Pounds has since been paid; and it was by the said recited Act directed, that the several Instalments of the said Sum of Six hundred thousand Pounds should be paid into

‘ into the hands of the Cashier of the Governor and Company of the ‘ Bank of England, to the Account of the said Commissioners, and ‘ should be and remain in the Names of the said Commissioners, to ‘ be paid to the several and respective Persons entitled thereto, under ‘ the Order of the said Commissioners or any two of them, pursuant ‘ to the Provisions of the said recited Act; And whereas Part of ‘ the said Sum of Six hundred thousand Pounds hath already been ‘ distributed by the said Commissioners in pursuance of the said re‘ cited Act; but a considerable Time may elapse before all the ‘ Claims of Persons entitled to receive any Compensation out of the ‘ said Sum of Six hundred thousand Pounds are adjudged, and it may ‘ be expedient that such Part of the Balance of the said Sum of ‘ Money remaining in the Hands of the Cashier of the said Governor ‘ and Company undistributed, as to the said Commissioners shall seem ‘ fit, should in the mean Time be vested in Exchequer Bills;’ be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners appointed by the said recited Act to withdraw such Part of the Balance of the said Sum of Six hundred thousand Pounds, remaining in the Hands of the said Cashier of the said Governor and Company, as to the said Commissioners shall seem fit, from the Hands of the Cashier of the said Governor and Company, and to invest the same in Exchequer Bills, which Exchequer Bills shall be deposited in the Hands of the said Governor and Company, and shall be and remain in the same Names on the same Account and to and for the same Intents and Purposes, and subject to the like Claims of Compensation, in Proportion to the Amount thereof, as well as of the Interest accruing on the said Exchequer Bills, and to the like Orders of Payment, and other Regulations, as the said part of such Balance of the said Sum of Six hundred thousand Pounds was pursuant to the said recited act, before the same shall have been so invested in Exchequer Bills as aforesaid.

The Commissioners under recited Act may withdraw the Balance at the Bank, and invest the Money in Exchequer Bills, to be deposited in the Bank for the purposes of the said Act.
